

Looking for work in Belgium

Expertise in Labour Mobility has prepared practical guides to support you in your job-hunting abroad. A thorough preparation will give you a head start in the country of your choice.

Editorial Review

The Looking for work in Belgium guide tells you about CV writing, recruitment practice, country profile and management differences. It's the first step on your route to success abroad. Because, an international career needs more than just a mere CV translation!

Country Profile

- Belgium is a federal parliamentary democracy under a constitutional monarchy.
- The country has 3 official languages: Flemish, French and German are spoken.

Work permits in Belgium

- European Economic Area (EEA) citizens are free to live and work anywhere within the EEA including Belgium.
- Foreigners need to apply for a residence permit. The permit is issued within the first six months of the arrival.

Writing a CV and application letter in Belgium

- Educational results need only be given if they resemble a direct reference to the position you are applying for.
- The common format for a CV in Belgium is the reverse chronological order (i.e. most recent dates first).

The application procedure in Belgium

- One of the most successful ways to find work in Belgium is through speculative applications.
- A Belgian employer will pay most attention to experience, motivation and social skills.

Management culture in Belgium

- Management authority rests on competence rather than on hierarchy.
- Belgians generally strive towards reaching a compromised in their daily business activities.

By Expertise in Labour Mobility

ISBN: 978-90-5896-063-4

Price: 19,95 euro

This one pager is based on the Looking for work Belgium guide, the international jobseeker's travel companion on a route to success. If you want to learn more about life and work in Belgium, why wait any longer? Order the complete Looking for Work in Belgium guide now and start your international career today!

A full guide can be ordered online via www.labourmobility.com

Frequently bought together with the Looking for work in Belgium guide :

