

Looking for work in Germany

Expertise in Labour Mobility has prepared practical guides to support you in your job-hunting abroad. A thorough preparation will give you a head start in the country of your choice.

Editorial Review

The Looking for work in Germany guide tells you about CV writing, recruitment practice, country profile and management differences. It's the first step on your route to success abroad. Because, an international career needs more than just a mere CV translation!

Country Profile

- Germany is a federal republic with a chancellor as the head of government.
- Berlin is the capital city of Germany.

Work permits in Germany

- EEA citizens are free to move and work anywhere within the EEA including Germany.
- Contact the German embassy in your home country for more information.

Writing a CV and application letter in Germany

- The key focus of your CV should be to persuade the employer to invite you for an interview. Therefore, your CV is a marketing tool, which should be adapted to the market in which you intend to use it.
- The style of writing should be concise, to the point and clear.

The application procedure in Germany

- An application letter should be written in a formal and rather conservative tone.
- Answer questions with precision in a German interview.

Management culture in Germany

- The German organisational structure is defined by a comparatively steep hierarchy lead by a strong management.
- Meetings are efficient, scheduled and in order.

By Expertise in Labour Mobility

ISBN: 978-90-5896-057-3
Price: 19,95 euro

This one pager is based on the Looking for work in Germany guide, the international jobseeker's travel companion on a route to success. If you want to learn more about life and work in Germany, why wait any longer? Order the complete Looking for Work in Germany guide now and start your international career today!

A full guide version can be order via www.labourmobility.com

Frequently bought together with the Looking for work in Germany guide :

