

Looking for work in Greece

Expertise in Labour Mobility has prepared practical guides to support you in your job-hunting abroad. A thorough preparation will give you a head start in the country of your choice.

Editorial Review

The Looking for work in Greece guide tells you about CV writing, recruitment practice, country profile and management differences. It's the first step on your route to success abroad. Because, an international career needs more than just a mere CV translation!

Country Profile

- Greece is a parliamentary democracy and divided into 52 counties.
- An ongoing issue in Greek foreign policy is the enduring dispute over Cyprus.

Work permits in Greece

- EEA citizens are free to move and work anywhere within the EEA including Greece.
- Contact the Greek embassy in your home country for more information on work permits.

Writing a CV and application letter in Greece

- The key focus of your CV should be to persuade the employer to invite you for an interview. Therefore, your CV is a marketing tool, which should be adapted to the market in which you intend to use it
- Many Greek companies use application form instead of individual CVs.

The application procedure in Greece

- Looking for a job, the internet as well as local newspaper is an important source of information.
- The most important route to employment is through personal contacts. A temporary job might help to build up network.

Management culture in Greece

- Reaching consensus after a discussion is important during a Greek business meeting.
- Punctuality is less important in Greece compare to western European countries.

By Expertise in Labour Mobility

ISBN: 978-90-5896-068-9
Price: 19,95 euro

This one pager is based on the Looking for work Greece guide, the international jobseeker's travel companion on a route to success. If you want to learn more about life and work in Greece, why wait any longer? Order the complete Looking for Work in Greece guide now and start your international career today!

All guides can be ordered from www.labourmobility.com

Frequently bought together with the Looking for work in Greece guide:

