

Looking for work in Japan

Expertise in Labour Mobility has prepared practical guides to support you in your job-hunting abroad. A thorough preparation will give you a head start in the country of your choice.

Editorial Review

The Looking for work in Japan guide tells you about CV writing, recruitment practice, country profile and management differences. It's the first step on your route to success abroad. Because, an international career needs more than just a mere CV translation!

Country Profile

- Japan was founded by the emperor Jimmu in 600 BC, the ancestor of the present ruling imperial family.
- Tokyo is the capital city of Japan and one of the most populated cities in the world.

Work permits in Japan

- If you wish to enter Japan you must be in the possession of a valid passport and a visa obtained from the embassy or consulate in your home country.
- A visa cannot be acquired after you have arrived in Japan.

Writing a CV and application letter in Japan

- A CV is a marketing tool to persuade the employer to invite you for an interview.
- A good application letter shows how effective you are as a communicator.

The application procedure in Japan

- The best way to find a job in Japan is to be introduced by a mutual acquaintance.
- It is customary to have just one or two job interviews in Japan.

Management culture in Japan

- The Japanese have a strong sense of hierarchy, rank, position and status at all times.
- The Japanese are preferred quiet, respectful and patient behaviour.

By Expertise in Labour Mobility

ISBN: 978-90-5896-074-0
Price: 19,95 euro

This one pager is based on the Looking for work Japan guide, the international jobseeker's travel companion on a route to success. If you want to learn more about life and work in Japan, why wait any longer? Order the complete Looking for Work in Japan guide now and start your international career today!

All guides can be ordered online via www.labourmobility.com

Frequently bought together with the Looking for work in Japan guide:

