

Looking for work in the Netherlands

Expertise in Labour Mobility has prepared practical guides to support you in your job-hunting abroad. A thorough preparation will give you a head start in the country of your choice.

Editorial Review

The Looking for work in the Netherlands guide tells you about CV writing, recruitment practice, country profile and management differences. It's the first step on your route to success abroad. Because, an international career needs more than just a mere CV translation!

Country Profile

- The capital city of The Netherlands is Amsterdam, however, the government and parliament situated in The Hague.
- Between Amsterdam, The Hague, Utrecht and Rotterdam the large urbanised area is called the Randstad.

Work permits in the Netherlands

- EEA citizens are free to move and work anywhere within the EEA including the Netherlands.
- A resident permit is a must and should be issued six month within someone arrival.

Writing a CV and application letter in the Netherlands

- A Dutch CV uses a direct factual style and is written in reversed chronological order.
- It includes personal details, education, work experience and leisure activities.

The application procedure in the Netherlands

- Expect questions about your motivation, your character, strengths and weaknesses, your education and the company itself.
- Take copies of your CV, diplomas and employer testimonials to an interview.

Management culture in the Netherlands

- Decisions are taken after all options have been discussed - the decision-making process is rather time consuming.
- The Dutch appreciates 'time is money' attitude.

By Expertise in Labour Mobility

ISBN: 978-90-5896-058-0
Price: 19,95 euro

This one pager is based on the Looking for work in the Netherlands guide, the international jobseeker's travel companion on a route to success. If you want to learn more about life and work in Germany, why wait any longer? Order the complete Looking for Work in the Netherlands guide now and start your international career today!

A full guide version can be order online via www.labourmobility.com

Frequently bought together with the Looking for work in the Netherlands guide:

