

Looking for work in Russia

Expertise in Labour Mobility has prepared practical guides to support you in your job-hunting abroad. A thorough preparation will give you a head start in the country of your choice.

Editorial Review

The Looking for work in Russia guide tells you about CV writing, recruitment practice, country profile and management differences. It's the first step on your route to success abroad. Because, an international career needs more than just a mere CV translation!

Country Profile

- Russia covers eleven time zones and 170,074,000 square kilometers which makes it the largest country in the world.
- The monetary unit in Russia is the rouble. You are not allowed to bring or take any Russian money outside the country.

Work permits in Russia

- Work permits must be obtained in consultation with the Russian embassy at your home country and the Russian organisation where you are employed.
- One cannot change its immigration status while in Russia.

Writing a CV and application letter in Russia

- The Russian CV should be handwritten and very detailed – don't leave blank spaces.
- The Russian application letter is usually handwritten, although typed letters are becoming more common.

The application procedure in Russia

- There are no general rules regarding how many interviews will be held, but it is usually more than one.
- Prepare yourself for questions about your personal and professional goals.

Management culture in Russia

- Hierarchy is of great importance in Russian society.
- Russians are mostly receptive and status conscious.

By Expertise in Labour Mobility

ISBN: 978-90-5896-080-1
Price: 19,95 euro

This one pager is based on the Looking for work in Russia guide, the international jobseeker's travel companion on a route to success. If you want to learn more about life and work in Russia, why wait any longer? Order the complete Looking for Work in Russia guide now and start your international career today!

All guides can be ordered online via www.labourmobility.com

Frequently bought together with the Looking for work in Russia guide:

