

Looking for work in Spain

Expertise in Labour Mobility has prepared practical guides to support you in your job-hunting abroad. A thorough preparation will give you a head start in the country of your choice.

Editorial Review

The Looking for work in Spain guide tells you about CV writing, recruitment practice, country profile and management differences. It's the first step on your route to success abroad. Because, an international career needs more than just a mere CV translation!

Country Profile

- Spanish is the main language; however, Basque, Catalan and Galician are the official language.
- The majority of the Spanish population is Catholic.

Work permits in Spain

- EEA citizens are free to move and work wherever they want to, within the EEA (including Spain).
- You must apply for a residence permit. This is valid for five years and should be issued within six months of your arrival.

Writing a CV and application letter in Spain

- Give your passport or ID number under your personal details in a Spanish CV.
- Application forms are widely used in Spain.

The application procedure in Spain

- The Spanish job centres have a good overview of all available jobs.
- In Spain the Internet is increasing in importance as a medium to look for a job.

Management culture in Spain

- Throughout Spanish business, individualism is predominant in management and team orientation is less important.
- In Spain, long lunch break is common and usually takes around 2 hours, starting approximately at 13.30.

By Expertise in Labour Mobility

ISBN: 978-90-5896-055-9
Price: 19,95 euro

This one pager is based on the Looking for work in Spain guide, the international jobseeker's travel companion on a route to success. If you want to learn more about life and work in Spain, why wait any longer? Order the complete Looking for Work in Spain guide now and start your international career today!

A full guide version can be order online via www.labourmobility.com

Frequently bought together with the Looking for work in Spain guide:

