Editorial Review

The Looking for work in United Arab Emirates guide tells you about CV writing, recruitment practice, country profile and management differences. It's the first step on your route to success abroad. Because, an international career needs more than just a mere CV translation!

Country Profile

- The United Arab Emirates are located in the Persian Gulf with Abu Dhabi as the capital city.
- The United Arab Emirates consists of seven federations.

Work permits in United Arab Emirates

- To work in the UAE you have to have a labour card. You can apply for it, if you have a resident permit.
- To become a resident in the UAE you have to have a sponsor – someone who will legally vouch for you.

Writing a CV and application letter in United Arab Emirates

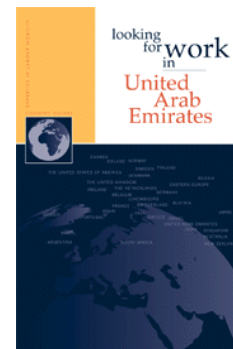

- If you are not married, it is not wise to mention that you 'only' live together with a partner – it is not in compliance with the Muslim religion.
- Send it together with the CV and a photograph.

The application procedure in United Arab Emirates

- Be prepared for more than one interview in the UAE.
- Bring a copy of your passport, photographs and an extra CV.

Management culture in United Arab Emirates

- There is a national urge to negotiate in the UAE – don't forget Arabs enjoy bargaining to the full!
- To be late is something common and excusable in UAE.
